you show your e-ticket to the staff, you will be given a physical boarding pass. All travelers get confused by airline rules about baggage. For trips lasting several days or more, you'll need to fill in a piece of hold luggage, while for a long weekend or for a city break, all you need can usually fit into a bag or case which you can take with you on the plane. Once you've made it successfully on to your flight, look for a number followed by a letter on your boarding pass. That's your seat number. If you can't locate it, the cabin crew will be happy to help and put your luggage in a safe place, either in an overhead bin or under your seat. Now, all you need to do is sit back and relax.
